OVERVIEW

Situated in the heart of the desirable village of Cartmel, this unique barn conversion offers a versatile layout and is larger than expected.

The accommodation is over two floors with the impressive double height living/dining and kitchen space to the first floor - perfect for looking out over the garden - and is perfect for entertaining. The four bedrooms are across the ground floor with two having both ensembles and double doors to the garden. Thought and practicality is evident throughout with the addition of a utility room, walk in pantry and lots of built in storage. Externally, the property benefits from a generous enclosed garden. The level lawn is great for kids and pets and there is a patio space close to the house.

LOCATION

Situated close to the historic Square, the property is accessed via a yard to the side of The Royal Oak pub. Buyers looking for a second home/rental investment will struggle to find a more central position. Cartmel is a desirable area and is located approximately 20 minutes drive from both junction 36 of the M6 and Windermere. Home to two Michelin star restaurants, Cartmel also boasts to its own racecourse, 12th Century Priory, numerous public houses and is the birthplace to the world famous sticky toffee pudding. Unlimited walks and bike rides are on the doorstep and the wider Lake District National Park within easy reach.
