OVERVIEW

Being positioned within the Lake District National Park and having views across the picturesque Lyth Valley from most rooms, Sunny Hill is an idyllic character cottage on a deceptive plot. Ideal for a range of buyers, the practical layout has a useful boot room/utility, great for muddy pets (or children), the kitchen diner has space for a generous dining table and there is a lounge with cosy wood burner. For those working from home there is a study/snug and there is also a downstairs cloakroom. Moving to the first floor are two good size double bedrooms along with a single - all with fitted handmade wardrobes. The house bathroom has a four piece suite. Character and charm is in abundance, with the age of the building in evidence throughout - from the quirky sloping floors, painted beams, attractive doors and thick walls - all tastefully combined with neutral decor and period style modern double glazed windows. Perfectly named as the cottage has an elevated position and faces southwest with views towards Arnside Knott and Whitbarrow Scar. The sloping gardens have various seating and entertaining areas along with a side and rear garden, all with wonderful views.

Brigsteer is popular with a range of buyers, being just 3 miles from Kendal and boasts a pub and a modern village hall which hosts a variety of groups and classes. There are walks from the door up Scout Scar and Brigsteer Woods. Primary schools can be found in nearby Crosthwaite and Levens, which also has a village shop. There is good access to the A590 for road travel further afield and via the rail network with a station at Oxenholme on the Westcoast Mainline.
